* Much of the value to attendees of the annual Pacific Logging Congress are the peer networking opportunities it provides. In order to facilitate communications between our attendees, PLC will provide pre-registered, current dues-paying members a printed list of attendees in their welcome bags. Attendee name/business affiliation/email address will be provided on this list. Your registration constitutes your agreement that the PLC may use your contact information for this purpose. ☐ Check here to have your info withheld & not receive a list.
